

Dear NASA Championships Participant,

Thank you for joining us at the 2017 NASA Eastern States Championships Presented by Toyo Tires at Sebring International Raceway! We look forward to a great event at this historic track!

There are many important details below so please read everything carefully. Any updates and all later communications will be emailed directly to registered drivers.

Event info page: <https://nasachampionships.com/east-event/>

Arrival

Plan your arrival according to the Registration times listed below. You and your crew will get your credentials at Registration and you will sign two waivers (Sebring waiver and NASA waiver) prior to entering the facility. You will not be allowed into the track at any time without your driver band and your gate waiver wristband. When you arrive, follow signs for NASA participants to registration which is at the Bill Martin Center building. You will turn right before you arrive at the main spectator front gate. Check-in is at the ticket windows which are outside on the right side of this building (look for NASA banner). If you arrive after hours, you must come back to Registration during open hours to get this packet of credentials.

Registration Schedule:

Wednesday 1:30 PM – 8PM

Thursday 7AM – 5:30PM

Friday 7AM – 2PM

Saturday 7AM – 12PM

Sunday 8AM-10AM

Staging on Wednesday

If you arrive prior to 6:30PM Wednesday, you will be staged outside the gate and please follow signs depending on if you paid for Priority Entry or have regular entry.

Entry Time into Paddock

If you paid for Priority Entry, you can enter the paddock at 5:00 PM Wednesday October 18 (this is a change due to the track having a private renter on Wednesday)

If you have regular entry access, you can enter the paddock at 6:30PM Wednesday October 18.

Please refer to Registration times for other entry times/days. If you and your crew arrive at a time outside of Registration hours, you may be required to pay the one time gate fee of $25.

Crew

All support staff and guests are considered crew and if you are crew, you need to check in with your driver's name. We do not need names for crew members. Once a driver's two slots are full, extra crew will be paid for (unless there are preregistered extra crew). Passes for additional crew (after 2 free per driver) are available online from the registration page or on site for $25 cash or card. You must arrive during Registration hours to get your credentials. If you arrive after Registration hours, you may need to pay entry at the gate and come back up to Registration for your credentials with hot pit access during open hours.

Parking

If you have pre-registered for Premium Parking, your space will be noted in your driver credentials received at Registration. Remember, you must check in at registration before entering the facility.
